The well-known McEnelly singing orchestra made its second appearance of the season in Howland hall last evening and acquitted itself in its usual highly creditable manner. An excellent concert, lasting from eight until nine o'clock, was followed by dancing, which continued until long into the night. As many as 125 couples were in attendance.

Should Brattleboro high school defeat Bellows Falls high school at football Saturday, the state championship would lie between the former school and Goddard seminary. Therefore, a game between the two teams is being arranged to be played in Brattleboro next Wednesday, in the event that Brattleboro should emerge a victor in Saturday's contest at Bellows Falls. Should Bellows Falls win, however, Goddard would be first choice for the championship, as Bellows Falls has already lost to teams in the southern part of the state making no claims for the honor.

AUCTION SALE

Cottage House

at EAST BARRE, VT.

We will sell at public auction to the highest bidder on Monday, November 21, 1910,

at two o'clock in the afternoon on the premises located at East Barre, Vt., on the Washington road and known as the Bert Blake property. This property consists of a nearly new cottage house of six rooms, nicely finished, good chambers, porch on front and back, good cellar, large lot 60x100 feet, near stoned shed, post office, stores and all business places. This is a very slick, clean, desirable place for someone who wants to own his home. Do not pay rent when you can buy this property at your own price, as it will be sold to the highest bidder, as circumstances are such that it must be sold without limit as to price. The property carries $1,000 insurance, taxes are low, and is a good investment proposition, aside from making a nice home. Do not miss the sale. Remember the date, November 21, at two o'clock in the afternoon on the premises. Terms at time of sale.
